Some parents and students have emailed about seeing an error when they try to log into the student account. This typically happens when someone else's Google account (usually Gmail) or Office.com account is logged in on the browser. They'll need to log out of either or both of those platforms in the browser they are using and then try to sign in again at www.tulsaschools.org/canvas.

Still can't log in? Be sure that you are using your formal first name, as it appears on your Enrollment and/or PowerSchool.

If you're still having trouble logging in or need to schedule an appointment for device repair send an email to studentvl@tulsaschools.org or call 539-777-1077.
